

Handwritten text on a single page of aged, stained, and torn parchment. The text is written in a medieval Gothic script on red-lined staves. The ink is dark and the parchment is heavily discolored with brown stains and foxing. Several large, decorative initials are written in red and blue ink, including a prominent 'S' at the top left and another 'S' further down. The text is arranged in approximately 12 horizontal lines, with some lines containing musical notation (neumes) above the text. The right edge of the page is severely damaged and ragged.
