

Fragment of a manuscript page, likely a page from a book, showing several lines of text in a medieval script. The text is written in dark ink on aged, yellowish parchment. The script is a Gothic or similar medieval hand. The text is arranged in two columns, with a red line separating the two columns. The text is mostly illegible due to fading and damage, but some words are visible, such as "ST. AUGUSTINE" and "DE CIVITATE DEI". The fragment is torn and has a jagged right edge. A small blue mark, possibly a letter 'A', is visible in the bottom right corner of the fragment.
